4. Govt.Lr.No.1/Public(Misc.)/2021-1, Public(Misc.) Department, dated 02.02.2021

ORDER:

As per the Government Order first read above, the State Government Employees are entitled to avail three 'Restricted Holidays' in a year, on the festivals / occasions from the 'Restricted Holidays' enlisted in the Annexure to that Government Order at their option and irrespective of the religion to which the festival relates. Permission to avail oneself of these holidays should be applied, in writing, in advance and will normally be granted by the superior officer, competent to grant casual leave, except that the presence of an employee is considered necessary, in exigencies of Government work.

2. In the Government Order second read above, the festivals / occasions on which Restricted Holidays (34 Festivals / Occasions) can be availed by State Government Employees have been listed in the annexure. The festival name 'Thai Poosam' is at sl.no.11 in the list.

3. In the Government Order third read above, the Public Department has issued orders declaring the festival 'Thai Poosam' as a Public Holiday, since 2021, under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

4. In the Government letter 4th read above, the Public Department has requested to remove the name of the festival 'Thai Poosam' from the list of Restricted Holidays, as it has been included in the list of Public Holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

5. After careful examination, the Government direct that the festival name 'Thai Poosam' be deleted from the list of Restricted Holidays, as it has been included in the list of Public Holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. The revised list of Restricted Holidays is annexed to this order.
